

Forklift Safety Training & Certification

for Dealership Employees

Tuesday, March 12th– Space is Limited!

Due to accidents, deaths, and property damage, Federal law mandates that anyone operating a forklift must successfully participate in formal training and receive proper certification. The Dealership, as the employer, is responsible for OSHA Compliance for all forklift operators. Your Association is conducting Forklift Safety and Certification Training to help your dealership abide by OSHA standards through employee education.

This course will include:

- OSHA safety requirements
- Causes of forklift accidents
- Understanding the dynamics of the forklift
- Pallet safety
- Maneuvering ramps
- Daily inspection checklists
- Individual driving tests
